Local Communications Company Receives International Marketing and Communications Award

Web Feet Communications is a recipient of an honorable mention award

Clinton, MD—November 1, 2018—Web Feet Communications has received an International Marketing and Communications Award. The honorable mention is awarded in the category of digital media website design for a nonprofit.

MarCom Awards are administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals. The international organization consists of several thousand creative professionals. The Association oversees awards and recognition programs, provides judges and sets standards for excellence.

Judges are industry professionals who look for companies and individuals whose talents exceed a high standard of excellence and whose work serves as a benchmark for the industry. There were over 6,500 entries from 20 countries in the MarCom Awards 2018 competition.

About the MarCom Excellence Awards

MarCom Awards is an international creative competition that recognizes outstanding achievement by marketing and communication professionals. Entries come from corporate marketing and communication departments, advertising agencies, PR firms, design shops, production companies, and freelancers.

As part of its mission, AMCP fosters and supports the efforts of creative professionals who contribute their unique talents to public service and charitable organizations. Over the past few years, AMCP's Advisory Board has allocated over $250,000 in grants and contributions to support philanthropic efforts. The money is used for marketing materials for homeless shelters, orphanages, day camps, community theaters and art centers; and programs for the elderly and disabled; childcare; and educational endeavors for the underprivileged.
